

Barbecue is Enjoyed.

Reviving a hospitable fashion of pioneer days—entertainment—Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Williams were the host and hostess to a large crowd of friends at a barbecue at the country club Thursday evening. This enjoyable event was arranged for the pleasure of Mrs. John W. Light of Light, Ariz., at one time one of Chickasha's most loved and popular residents. Mr. Williams, who started in the cattle business with Mr. Light, is now using the latter's old brand, a "T. S." and Mrs. Light was presented with a hat pin with the brand upon it. The napkins used at the barbecue were also decorated with the brand.

A seven hundred pound two year old beef which was the piece de resistance of the barbecue was excellently cooked and plentifully served with the usual accessories. The beef had been dressed several days before and put in cold storage, and was put on the fire at twelve o'clock of the night preceding the barbecue. The preparation and cooking of the meat and the "Mysterious Stew" which was served with it, were superintended by Bill Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams were assisted in serving by Mrs. Williams' mother, Mrs. Cashell, Mrs. Johns, Mrs. Inman, Mrs. Blackmon and Mrs. Morgan Hamilton and Mr. Tom Boyd.

The guests numbered about one hundred and sixty and all were enthusiastic over the success of this unusual and delightful form of entertainment. The barbecue was served in the open and the guests spent the remainder of the evening quite informally at the club house.

Visiting Girls Honored.

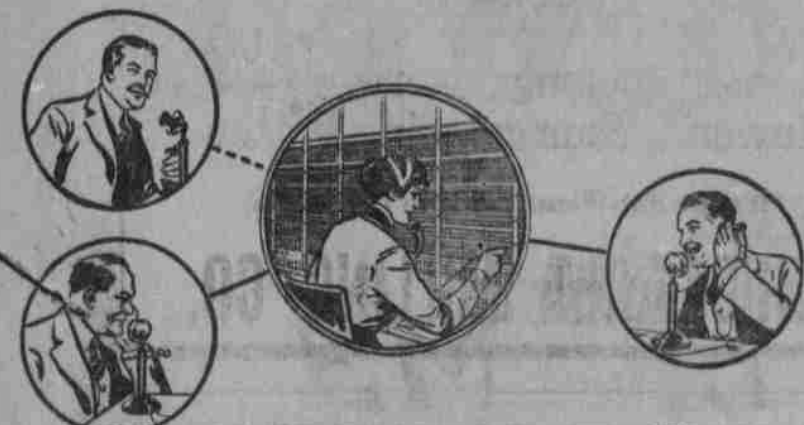

Mrs. Charles Trammell was the hostess at an enjoyable party last Saturday afternoon complimentary to her sister, Miss Lucile Lawhon of San Angelo, Texas, who is spending the winter in Chickasha and attending the O. C. W., and Misses Willie Mae Crawford of Tonkawa and Ruth Williams of Hot Springs, O. C. W. students, and Mabel Fink of St. Louis, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Major. Blind bridge was played at four tables and Miss Dorothy Gorman, who scored high, and Miss Ruth Williams, who was successful in an all around cut, received pretty crepe de chine handkerchiefs. Refreshments followed the last game.

Besides the honorees the guest list included Misses Leta Major, Joy Ringler, Rebecca Armstrong, Marjorie Cochran, Dorothy Gorman, Nell Dashner, Claudia Fay White, Edith Mosley, Kelly May, Dorothy Stone and Mesdames Earl Dallas, Alger Melton and R. E. Montgomery.

Presbyterian Guild.

There was a good attendance at the regular meeting of the Presbyterian Guild Tuesday afternoon, including one new member, Mrs. Griffin, and a visitor, Mrs. Payne. Four rag rugs were made and delivered; the members enjoying a visit with one another as they sewed. Mrs. Howard Miller and Mrs. Chas. Rose were the hostesses, serving lovely refreshments late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Livermore and Mrs. White will be hostesses next week. Orders for several comforts will be filled at the next meeting.

"The Line is Busy"

OVER two hundred and sixty-two million telephone calls were answered last year at Pioneer Exchanges in the State. It is not surprising that some telephone lines were found to be busy.

If it occurs frequently it means that the party you wish to reach needs more telephones—or if on a party line, a direct line would help matters.

It's a mistake to think that, to save herself work, the operator reports the line busy when it is not; it's much more work for her to notify you that the line is busy than it is to give you the number.

Busy men have busy telephones. It is unavoidable that you may sometimes have to knock more than once at their telephone door.

Sorosis Study Club.

An informal indoor picnic at the home of Mrs. Elmer Terrell featured the opening meeting of Sorosis Study Club Wednesday. The delicious meal was served buffet style at one o'clock and the intellectualism and aestheticism of the modern club woman were temporarily laid aside for Epicurean pleasures. Mrs. Clay Donovan of Oklahoma City, a former Sorosis member, was the only guest present.

When the club was formally called to order original vacation verses were given in response to roll call. The outgoing president, Mrs. B. B. Barfoot, then presented the gavel to Mrs. H. F. Gorman, who made an appropriate talk as she assumed the responsibilities of the office. Some choice Edison selections were a part of the pleasing program.

Next Wednesday Mrs. Gorman will lead the first of a series of lessons on China. Roll call will be responded to with current events.

To Celebrate Anniversary.

At the last regular meeting of the Pythian Sisters, held Monday afternoon, it was decided to celebrate the twenty-ninth anniversary of the organization of the order with a basket supper. All Knights of Pythias and all Pythian Sisters and their families are invited to be present and to bring well filled baskets for seven o'clock supper.

Mrs. W. S. Richards of 1218 Minnesota Ave., grand senior of the Pythian Sisters, has extended an invitation to the other members to attend school at her home Monday, October 9, at 9:15 a. m. The guests were invited to bring a school lunch.

The Pythian Sisters are contemplating the organization of a National Park Study Club, and some definite action will probably be taken Monday.

Forty-Two Club.

Members of the Forty-Two club held their first meeting of the season on Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Roy Smith. One guest, Mrs. U. C. Boone, was present, and two new members, Mrs. L. D. Major and Mrs. W. T. Patten, were taken into the club. The club game was enjoyed at two tables and the hostess served a delectable ice course at the usual hour.

Mrs. Elmer Terrell will be hostess at the next meeting which will probably be held one afternoon next week.

Miss Flagler Hostess.

Miss Edith Flagler most happily entertained the lady members of the high school faculty last Tuesday evening. Needlework and two interesting contests were the pleasurable diversions and the hostess served delicious refreshments at a late hour.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Miss Merle McNitt of Washington, Kansas, arrived in Chickasha yesterday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. R. W. Murray.

Mrs. Reford Bond spent yesterday in Oklahoma City.

VISITATION DAY.

Next Sunday (Oct. 8) is set apart in the local Presbyterian church as "Church Visitation Day." The whole day is to be given up by the membership of the church to the cause of the church. In the morning the church membership is to visit the church for the regular Sabbath morning service, and in the afternoon the church in the person of selected visitors is to call upon the church members in their homes, and to this end the membership of the church, together with those who are accustomed to worship with the Presbyterian congregation are asked kindly to remain at home for the afternoon so that they may receive the intended visitation.

At night the church membership will come back once more to the church building at the time of the regular evening service that they may hear something of the results of the visitation of the afternoon.

The success of the day, says the pastor, will depend much upon the spirit in which the membership respond to the purposes of the day, and that it is extremely important that each mem-
